

Not in favor of the proposal. Spectrum belongs to citizens.
Interference to communications, emergency, recreational and experimental will stifle future innovation.

You may consider that the largest age group utilizing the frequencies to be affected are "baby boomers" who are about to retire and are returning to their earlier hobbies. They are the same age group that is most likely to vote.